

Lighting for every personality

Soft and diffused, Meltemi lighting in opal white blown glass completes an exquisite collection of cutting-edge Italian design. Its pure glow, clear and strong, infuses any environment with tranquil light that inspires inner peace. Meltemi also has a line of new architectural lamps, "Light Powerhouses" generating powerful light for space illumination.

ANITA

The incandescent Anita: diffused, widespread down-light. Opal white, blown glass, field-adjustable height.
